Chapter 4

Credit & Semester System (CSS)

4.1 THE CSS FRAMEWORK

P.G. programmes shall be under credit and semester system (CSS). In CSS, each academic year shall be organized into two semesters, with a vacation of one month during the whole programme: Each semester shall have a minimum of 100 working days and a minimum of 30 hrs. in a five day week. The semester schedules shall be as follows:

Odd Semester July to December (inclusive of end semester exams)

Even semester January to June (inclusive of end semester exams)

Each programme shall be offered as choice of courses of different types, each normally having an assigned credit associated with it. Teaching and learning shall be aided by feedback obtained through continuous (in-sem) assessment. Each course performance and overall semester performance, as well as overall programme performance shall be evaluated and assigned grades, as per the grading scale mentioned in section 6.1.

4.2 CORE COURSES

Each Dept. shall offer a choice of core courses to the students in their PG programme. The core courses shall be closely related to the subject of the PG programme.

4.3 ELECTIVE COURSES

Each Dept. shall offer a choice of elective courses in areas that are closely or distantly related to the subject of the PG programme to students of PG programme of any Dept. Further, provided that Departments may offer specific extra-departmental electives exclusively for students of other Depts. shall, after due consideration of teaching resources available, make every effort to ensure that students have a choice of elective courses. However, the student shall be guided by the Faculty Advisor who shall consider the relevance of the course for the student and also his/her abilities. In general, no student may register for electives exceeding 8 credits in any Semester.

4.4 ADD-ON AND ADDITIONAL SKILL ACQUISITION COURSES

Department Council may designate appropriate electives as Add-on Courses or Additional Skill Acquisition Courses. Add-on courses shall be those that are logical to be considered as a part of the programme in view of the programme objectives. Add-on Elective Courses shall have credits and grades which shall be used in computing the SGPA and CGPA. Additional Skill Acquisition Courses need not be logically related to the programme objectives and shall have credits and grades, which shall not be used in computing and SGPA and CGPA, but shall be included in the Grade Sheet. Add-on and Additional Skill Acquisition Courses shall be indicated as such in the grade sheets.

4.5 AUDIT COURSES

Audit courses are courses that do not carry credits and are not graded

4.6 NEGOTIATED COURSES

Negotiated Courses are elective courses that are designed and offered on request from students.

4.7 NON-TAUGHT COURSES

Non-Taught Courses are core or elective courses which are not centered on teaching, such as laboratory courses, seminars, projects, media production, case studies, internship, and field work. They can be offered by each Dept. and shall have credit assignments and evaluation procedures suitably defined as per provisions of these regulations.

4.8 CREDITS

Credits are numbers attached to each course which define their weightage in the whole programme. One credit is defined as

- i. weightage of a taught course with 1 contact hour/week/semester or
- ii. weightage of a non-taught course with 2 contact hour/week/semester.

4.9 COURSE CREDITS

Every taught course shall have 2, 3 or 4 credits. Extra-departmental electives shall have 2 credits. For non-taught courses, following guidelines are applicable: (a) seminars, term-papers, case studies, internship (of minimum 3 weeks) and field work shall have 2 credits each. (b) Laboratory courses shall have maximum of 4 credits. (c) Projects in Social Sciences and Arts & Humanities streams shall have maximum of 6 credits. (d) Projects in Science and Technology stream may have project credits of maximum of 20, when a whole semester is devoted to projects. In this case, the core and elective requirements shall be deemed to be met in that semester.

4.10 PROMOTION OF INTER-DISCIPLINARITY

All Departments shall offer at least one extra-departmental elective every year. Every student of 2-year PG programmes shall, during the whole programme, register for at least one elective course from outside Department and one elective course from outside School under which the Dept. falls; provided that students of Schools with single Dept. may register for two electives from outside the Dept.

4.11 PROGRAMME CREDITS

The minimum and maximum credit requirements for successful completion of the PG programmes are as follows:

Each course shall be designed as a stand-alone unit of academic experience.

5.2 COURSE TITLE AND CODE

Each course shall have a unique title and code. The code shall consist of maximum four alphabets indicating the Dept. and 3 digits; first digit indicating the level of the course (4 for PG programmes), Second digit indicating the semester and the last digit indicating the serial number of the course in that semester. CSSAC may suitably amend these codes for special purposes, maintaining a reasoned structure.

5.3 COURSE SYLLABUS OUTLINE

Course syllabus outline shall be a brief telegraphic statement of the topics to be dealt with in the course, designed by the Dept. Council for each course. This shall include statement of course objective, assessment strategy and course references.

5.4 PROGRAMME SYLLABUS

Programme Syllabus shall be a statement of programme objectives along with course syllabus outline of each course offered by the Department.

5.5 COURSE BULLETIN

The University shall make available to all students a Bulletin listing all the courses offered in every semester specifying the credits, the pre-requisites, list of topics the course intends to cover, the instructor who is giving the course, the time and place of the classes for the courses and the nature and schedules of assessments.

5.6 DETAILED COURSE BROCHURE

Detailed Course Brochure shall be issued to each student of a course by the respective teacher(s) offering the course. This shall be an expanded version of the course syllabus outline and shall typically consist of the following sections: Course title, course credits, name of teachers offering the course, course aims, learning outcomes, expanded syllabus, expanded core and supplementary references (including web resources), assessment strategies and any other noteworthy details of the course. The Course brochure shall be filed by the Department Councils and also reported to the CSSAC.

5.7 ACADEMIC CALENDAR

Academic calendar issued by CSSAC (which shall conform to semester definition as in section 4.1 of these regulations) shall be followed by each department.

5.8 INDUCTION PROGRAMME

Every School and Department may arrange induction programme for students in the first week of their admission into the programme and the induction may be normally 3 days duration aimed at introducing the University system, infrastructure and programme objectives to students of PG programmes, along with imparting an array of learning habits appropriate in higher education. Each student shall be made aware of the University Graduate Attributes.

5.9 REGISTRATION

Every student shall register for a set of courses of his/her choice, from the courses on offer, taking into consideration the advice from faculty advisor. Registration shall be done in the prescribed form within 2 weeks after commencement of a semester. With the consent of the Faculty Advisor, a student can drop out of any course within 3 weeks after registration, by applying in prescribed form.

5.10 CURRICULUM TRANSACTION STRATEGIES

It shall be up to the teacher teaching a course to choose the most appropriate curricular transaction strategies. However, the Dept. Council or CSSAC may issue general guidelines in this regard for due consideration by teachers. Teachers may consider the following approaches for curricular transactions (i) lecturing (ii) experiential learning (iii) service learning (iv) critical pedagogy (v) field study (vi) activity-based learning (vii) discourse method (viii) interactive learning (ix) eLearning and(x) group discussions.

5.11 STUDENT FEEDBACK

Student feedback on teaching and learning shall be collected for each course as a means of improving teaching. Student feedback shall be of two types. (i) Mid-sem qualitative feedback to be directly collected by the teacher teaching the course. (ii) quantitative feedback collected centrally by a committee authorized by the Vice-Chancellor. At the end of the programme, a programme feedback shall be collected from students, compiled and discussed by DC.

5.12 REVISIONS OF SYLLABUS

It shall be the responsibility of the Department Council to revise the syllabus from time to time. Minor revisions (such as additions, deletions, modifications of sub-topics, additions of latest reference materials etc.) shall be done as and when required, by the course teachers while issuing course bulletins. Such revisions shall, by and large, confine to the Course Syllabus outline approved by the Academic Council. The Department Council shall comprehensively revise the syllabus at least once in three years. Such major revisions shall involve collecting inputs from (i) alumni (ii) industry/academies (iii) employers (iv) peer inputs from subject experts outside the University. Revised syllabus shall be placed for approval of the Academic Council through the CSSAC.

5.13 PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

A minimal set of reading materials printed in Braille press shall be provided, free of cost, to visually challenged students.

Chapter 6

Assessment and Evaluation

6.1 GRADING OF STUDENT PERFORMANCE

Performance of students in individual courses shall be evaluated and assigned grades to indicate level of achievement of objectives. The grading scale shall be the same as the national pattern recommended by the UGC. Each grade shall be indicated by a letter as in the table below:

Grade	Grade Point
O (Outstanding)	10
A+ (Excellent)	9
A (Very good)	8
B+ (Good)	7
B (Above average)	6
C (Average)	5
D (Pass)	4
F (Fail)	0

Each grade shall have a corresponding grade point which serves as a means of aggregating letter grades and are not marks or scores.

6.2 TYPES OF ASSESSMENT

In the PG programmes, every taught course shall be assessed through: (a) continuous(in-sem) assessment with 40% weightage (b) end-sem assessment with 60% weightage.

6.3 CONTINUOUS (IN-SEM) ASSESSMENT FOR TAUGHT COURSES

Continuous assessment is aimed at giving continuous feedback about teaching and learning to teachers and students respectively. Out of 40% weightage allotted for continuous assessment, the sub components shall normally be:

Component -1 : Weightage 20%

Component -2 : Weightage 10%

Component -3 : Weightage 10%

20% shall be a written test. The other components designed by the course teacher are to be announced in advance as per provision 5.5. Component 2 may typically be an assignment involving a piece of scholarly critical work with critical reflection. Component 3 may typically be group discussion, fieldwork, presentations, case studies, etc.

6.3.1 Conduct of Assessment

Tests and other class assessments shall normally be conducted as per academic calendar and shall always be notified to students well in advance. Additional chance to take tests/examination or to submit assignments under extenuating circumstances or to take part in arts/sports events recognized by the University, shall be duly considered by the teacher.

6.3.2 Abnormal Test Results

Any test for which class average score is less than 40% shall not be reckoned for assessment and a re-test shall be administered for the whole class.

6.3.3 Articulating Grade Requirements & Late Submission Policies

For assignments/term papers/tasks, students shall be provided with clear indication of the effort required to achieve specific grades or score bands. Late submission policy for assignments shall be clearly stated. For each day of delay, not more than 10% of the maximum score may be deducted.

6.3.4 Receipts for Assignments

Students shall be issued with receipts for assignment if they so desire. Time stamped electronic communications shall also be considered as proof of submission.

6.3.5 Marking of Scripts

Teachers may offer written remarks on tests and assignments while returning marked scripts to students so as to enable them to understand the areas for improvement. This shall be mandatory for scores below 40%.

6.3.6 Plagiarism

Awareness shall be given by each course teacher to students about plagiarism and its unacceptability. Students may be encouraged to check plagiarism with software tool recommended by the UGC from time to time for assignments, term papers, and dissertations.

6.3.7 Communicating Results & Addressing Grievances

Each teacher shall formally communicate the score awarded for tests and assignments to every student. Student grievances, if any, shall be first addressed by the teacher. If not resolved, the same may be raised in the DC through the head of the department. Any appeal on the decision of the DC shall lie with student grievance subcommittee of CSSAC which shall give due hearing to the student(s) and teacher(s) and attempt to resolve the grievance, failing which the Syndicate of the University shall take a final decision in the matter.

6.4 END-SEMESTER ASSESSMENT FOR TAUGHT COURSES

6.4.1 Nature of End-sem Exam

Every taught course shall be assessed through a written end-sem exam of maximum 3 hours duration (3 hours for 3 & 4 credits and 2 hours for 2 credits). The end-sem exams shall be of summative nature and aimed at testing the achievement of course objectives as stated in the syllabus. Every student shall be issued, in the first week of the semester, a model question paper for the end-sem examinations. The end-sem exam shall normally consist of at least 20% of questions which involve higher order critical thinking. End-sem examination shall not constrain itself to knowledge recall.

6.4.2 Conduct of Exams for Even Semesters

Question papers of end-sem examination shall be set up by panel of examiners recommended by the DC and approved by the VC, based on the model question paper set by the teacher teaching the course. The office of the CSSAC shall arrange to set the question paper and conduct the exam. Answer script shall be marked by the teacher who taught the course and the one external examiner from a panel of examiners recommended by the DC and approved by the VC. If the grades awarded by two examiners differ by more than 10 % then a third examiner from the earlier panel shall be asked to re-mark and average of the best two scores shall be awarded to the candidate.

6.4.3 Conduct of Exams for Odd Semesters

Question papers of end – sem examination shall be set by the teacher(s) teaching the course. The teacher shall set two sets of question papers and it shall be peer-reviewed by the DC. The Head of the Department shall select one of the QPs and arrange to conduct the exam with the same. Answer scripts shall be valued by the teacher who taught the course and one external examiner from the panel of examiners recommended by the DC and approved by the VC. If the grades awarded by two examiners differ by more than 10 % then a third examiner from the earlier panel shall be asked to re-mark and average of the best two scores shall be awarded to the candidate. Grievances if any shall be addressed as per provisions of 6.3.7.

6.4.4 Grace Marks

Students who participate in any event listed in schedule III shall be eligible for grace marks of 15 marks per academic year and 30 marks for the whole programme. Grace mark shall be added to the total score achieved in any one or more courses of choice of the student, in the whole programme.

6.5 ASSESSMENT OF NON-TAUGHT COURSES

6.5.1 Seminar/Field Work/Case Studies/Internship/Media Production etc

The assessment methodology and time lines shall be clearly defined by the teacher through the course brochure issued to students. Evaluation rubric shall be proposed by the teacher and approved by the DC, and communicated clearly to the students.

6.5.2 Projects

Detailed guidelines on project objectives and detailed evaluation rubric for the same shall be approved by the DC and communicated effectively to the students. Project Management System shall be developed by each Department to enable effective monitoring and support, for projects with credits above 4. Evaluations rubric of projects with credit above 4 shall include innovation as one component.

6.5.3 Laboratory Courses

Detailed guidelines on conduct and assessment of laboratory courses and detailed evaluation rubric for the same shall be approved by the DC and communicated effectively to the students.

Chapter 7

Student Progress & Certification

7.1 PROHIBITION OF OTHER ENROLLMENTS, EMPLOYMENT & RAGGING

Once admitted, students shall not undergo any other programme of education, or undertake any full-time employment; provided that short MOOC courses recommended by faculty advisors shall not come under this category. Students are prohibited from indulging in any form of ragging. Any student, who after due process of law, is found guilty of ragging during PG programme, shall not be eligible to continue in the programme.

7.2 ATTENDANCE

Students have to secure a minimum of 75% attendance for each course to become eligible to appear for End Semester Examinations for the course concerned. There shall be no score for classroom attendance. No condonation for shortage of attendance shall be given. The Head of the Department shall, on the first of every month (or on the next immediate working day), formally communicate, any fall in attendance below 75%, related to the previous month, to the student concerned, and the CSSAC office.

7.3 ABSENCE FROM ASSESSMENT UNDER EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES

Students may apply to CSSAC through HoD for special arrangement to make up for absence from assessment under extenuating circumstances and the CSSAC shall be competent to permit such special arrangements after consideration and verification of the circumstances. Any consideration under this provision shall be based on formal request made immediately after the contingency (except in naturally impossible circumstances) either through self or next of kin.

7.4 REPEATING A COURSE

A student who fails to secure 75% attendance shall be required to repeat the course along with the next batch; provided that the course may be dropped if the student has met minimum credit requirements otherwise.

7.5 MINIMUM GRADES FOR COURSE, SEMESTER AND PROGRAMME

7.5.1 Minimum Grade for Successful Course Completion

The minimum required grade for successful completion of any course shall be a 'D' grade. There shall be a separate minimum of 40% marks for end semester examinations for each course.

7.5.2 Minimum Cumulative Grade and Scholastic Probation

If the Cumulative Grade of a student falls below 'C' in any semester, the student shall be declared to be on a scholastic probation and the same shall be formally communicated to the student by the DC. During the scholastic probation, the Faculty Advisor and Faculty Coordinator shall monitor the progress of the student and provide counseling and support. The student shall be required to achieve cumulative grade of 'C' or above by the next semester, failing which the student shall not be allowed to continue in the programme.

7.5.3 Requirements for Successful Completion of the Programme

- a. The minimum Cumulative Grade for successful completion of the programme shall be a 'C' grade.
- b. The student also shall be required to pass all courses for which he/she is registered.
- c. The student shall meet the minimum credit requirements for Core and Elective courses as laid out in these regulations.

7.5.4 Supplementary Exams

Students who fail in any course in any semester shall be permitted to appear for a maximum of two supplementary exams (along with the junior batch), within 8 continuous semesters. A student who fails to achieve Cumulative Grade of 'C' for the programme, but has passed all courses, shall be permitted to take supplementary examinations in maximum of 2 courses, after cancelling the results of the end-sem exam concerned (except project).

7.6 BREAK IN PROGRAMME

Students who discontinue the programme due to extenuating circumstances or due to appointments in Govt./Quasi Govt.organisations, may, within the limit of 8 semesters, be permitted to rejoin the programme with the existing batch, reckoning the earlier attendance and assessments, as deemed fit by the CSSAC.

7.7 LATE SUBMISSION AND RESUBMISSION OF DISSERTATION

(a) In the case of candidates who have completed the PG programme in all respects except submission of dissertation, they shall be permitted to submit the dissertation within the maximum semester duration, on payment of prescribed fees and fine. Students who prove extenuating circumstances shall be exempted from the above fine. (b) In the case of candidates who are asked by examiners to resubmit dissertations, they shall be permitted to resubmit the dissertation within the maximum semester duration, on payment of prescribed re-submission fees.

7.8 HORIZONTAL MOBILITY INTO AND OUT OF THE PROGRAMME

It shall be competent of DCs to recommend lateral entry into and exit from PG programmes and recommend qualifications for entry and awards for exit. Provided that the exits shall be limited to first semester resulting in a Certificate and after second semester, resulting in a PG Diploma. Each such scheme shall be offered only after approval by the Academic Council based on recommendation of the CSSAC. A student who exits laterally shall not be re-admitted into the programme.

7.9 CREDIT TRANSFER

Credit transfer into PG programmes shall be permitted within the provisions of the Credit Transfer Regulations of the University (2014). Credits earned from SWAYAM platform of UGC shall be transferred into the PG programmes within the provisions of the “Credit Framework for Online Learning Courses through SWAYAM” Regulations of the University (2016).

7.10 CERTIFICATION

7.10.1 Calculation of SGPA and Semester Grade:

To arrive at the Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) of each student, the sum of the products of the credits assigned to each course and the grade point corresponding to the grade awarded, is divided by the sum of the credits of all courses taken by the student in the semester. Grade awarded based on the SGPA shall be Semester Grade.

7.10.2 Calculation of CGPA and Programme Grade

To obtain Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA), the same procedure as in 7.10.1 is repeated except that the sum is taken over all the courses the student has taken in all the semesters till then. Grade awarded based on CGPA covering all semesters shall be the Programme Grade.

7.10.3 Classification:

There shall be no classification such as Distinction, First Class etc. for PG programme.

7.10.4 Ranking

There shall be no ranking of students in PG programmes and the Cumulative Grade/Programme Grade is to be relied on, in preference to CGPA, wherever possible. In case of any selection for recognitions, the Programme Grade shall be relied on, and to break ties, if any, number of highest grades awarded for courses shall be relied on.

7.11 GRADE SHEET

The University shall, under its seal, issue to the students a grade sheet on completion of each semester of a programme. The Grade sheet issued at the end of the final semester shall contain the following:

- a. The titles of the courses taken (including audit courses and transfer courses)
- b. The credits associated with each course
- c. The Grades secured by the student for each course.
- d. The Total credits earned by the student in the semester and the SGPA.
- e. The Total credits earned by the student till that semester and the CGPA.
- f. Overall/Programme Grade based on CGPA and class (with indication “Not completed” in case of students who do not meet requirements as in 7.5.3).

The Grade sheet shall not mention any marks/scores in any way. The grade sheet shall include a brief note on the credit definitions, grading scale and the grade statistics of the previous year.

7.12 MONITORING STUDENT PROGRESSION AND GRADE INFLATION

The office of the CSSAC shall compile in January of each year, the following data covering the results of the last calendar year: (a) distribution of grades stream-wise and dept.-wise (b) The grade statistics showing percentage of each type of grade awarded to all students and present it before the CSSAC. CSSAC shall analyze the pass percentage, investigate any abnormality and grade inflation or deflation and issue guidelines to address the same.

Chapter 8

Transitory Provision& Repeal

8.1 TRANSITORY PROVISION

Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations, the Vice-Chancellor shall, for a period of three years from the date of coming into force of these regulations, have the power to:

- a. provide by order that these regulations shall be applied to any other programme with such modifications as may be necessary.
- b. take actions as he/she deems fit, to remove difficulties in implementation/interpretation of the regulations.

8.2 REPEAL

The CSS Regulations of 1995 is hereby repealed, except as applicable to students already admitted under that regulation.
